

Where RELATIONSHIPS Grow

Building Relationships Through Traditional Outdoor Recreation

Train the Leaders Program

Taking the Train the Leaders allows you to concepts of teaching sport and outdoor activities ,become one of Pro-Staff, and helps you to better understand the principles and lesson plans we teach from here at CYO. The class will begin on June 1 running each day with a classroom session, as well as outdoor activity. Lunch will be provided. For questions please contact Chris Woodward or Chris Huff at 970-663-0800.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is designed to introduce teachers, parents, recreation leaders and community leaders to the concepts of teaching sport and outdoor activities, and curriculum for 6 outdoor recreation curriculums and a variety of Nature Play activities, and CYO's PACD relationship curriculum. They will also learn about planning for an activity, program or season, how participants learn and explaining, demonstrating and teaching skills.

Program Cost:

Course Cost: $150 (Waived for those becoming a CYO Pro-Staff)

Optional Credit: $55 per credit

*1.5-2 Graduate Credits through
Adams State University

June 1-4

8:00am- 3pm

Register online at <https://www.coloradoyo.org/train-the-leaders/>